

Farming for the future, post Brexit

WEDNESDAY 8th FEBRUARY 2017
THE ROWLEY MILE RACECOURSE, NEWMARKET, SUFFOLK

As Chairman of the Sentry Conference I am extremely proud to announce six exceptional individuals to address the challenges facing them in a post Brexit landscape. The 2017 conference will provide a considered, balanced and thought provoking insight for all those present.

Ian Pigott

PROGRAMME

- 08.45 Coffee and networking
- 09.30 Chairman's address - Ian Pigott
- 09.40 Christoph Wigger - John Deere Vice President
Opportunities, threats and new technologies. Farming for the future through John Deere's eyes.
- 10.15 David Walston - Farmer and Nuffield Scholar
Will Brexit change the way I farm?
- 10.50 Michael Aubrey - Partner, Mills & Reeve LLP
Brexit - what are the legal implications of leaving the EU?
- 11.25 Coffee break in the exhibition hall
- 12.00 Graeme Taylor - Director of Public Affairs, ECPA
Where have all our active ingredients gone? The challenges facing the crop protection industry.
- 12.35 Anna Jones - Journalist, Broadcaster and Nuffield Scholar
Managing the Media - learning from farmers' experiences from around the globe.
- 13.10 Lunch
- 14.45 James Kerr - The Sentry Lecture
Globally respected best selling author and speaker on defining, designing and delivering a winning environment. What UK agriculture can learn from the ALL BLACKS
- 15.45 Conference closes - tea and networking

Visit our website:

sentry.co.uk/conference-2017
for full details

SPECIAL STUDENT RATE OFFER
GET YOUR TICKET FOR THE MILLENNIUM SUITE
* price includes VAT

